

NIGHT OF CHAMPIONS

GALA & AUCTION

Dear Friends,

Addison Smith Mechanical Contractor, Inc. is pleased to announce and invite you to participate in our first annual Night of Champions Gala & Auction. With a commitment to our veterans, we are excited to have (SHV) Save Homeless Veterans, Inc. the financial recipient of this year's event.

Planned for February 8th, 2014 at Sunset Hills Country Club in Carrollton, the event will be filled with exciting information about this faith-based, 501(c)3 non-profit. With spokesperson former Atlanta Brave John Rucker, along with the verbal support of the VA and numerous other Military Officials and Organizations, Save Homeless Veterans Inc. is experiencing great results as they provide counseling, work-force readiness training, and temporary housing for current veterans. These steps are crucial for many veterans with no place to call home.

Our keynote speaker for the evening is former Sargent First Class U.S Army Special Forces Hero Greg Stube. His riveting story of near death, injury and recovery is a testament to the value of a secure home-life upon returning from service. Along with John Rucker, also scheduled to attend is Ryan Klesko former Atlanta Brave, David Green former Quarterback at UGA and Greg Lloyd, former Pittsburgh Steeler.

We want you to join us as we make a difference for our veterans. With your corporate or personal Sponsorship you will be included in the attendees of the 2014 Gala and Auction, the first of its kind benefiting SHV. Benefits for sponsors committing to this tax-deductible endeavor are described on the linked 2014 NOC Sponsorship Form. Please join us today.

Sincerely,

Night of Champions Organizational Team
